

Chapter 25 Questions

Core Questions:

1. Explain how economic and political problems can lead to war. Use World War II as an example.
2. What were the six major turning points in World War II?
3. Tell how the four factors of group success changed during the last part of World War II.
4. Describe the effects of World War II on the United States.

Supplemental Questions:

5. What idea did Roosevelt suggest at the Teheran Conference?
6. What did Roosevelt agree to get Soviet support in order to be against Japan?
7. What were the surrender terms for Germany?
8. How was the government of Japan to be changed?
9. Which two countries had the most soldiers killed during the war?
10. How would the UN decide when to send troops to stop a war?
11. What happened in concentration camps?
12. Why was the United States a superpower?
13. Why was the Soviet Union a superpower?
14. What two things did Stalin do after the war to increase distrust between the United States and the Soviet Union?
15. How did the war help end the depression?
16. What new group became a significant part of the labor force?
17. In what two ways did government help business during the war?
18. What happened to West Coast Japanese Americans during the war?
19. Tell three ways that there was discrimination against African Americans in the military.

20. What discrimination did African-American civilians face when they moved to the North and the West?